PULITZER PRIZE FOR BIOGRAPHY

The First Tycoon by T.J. Stiles

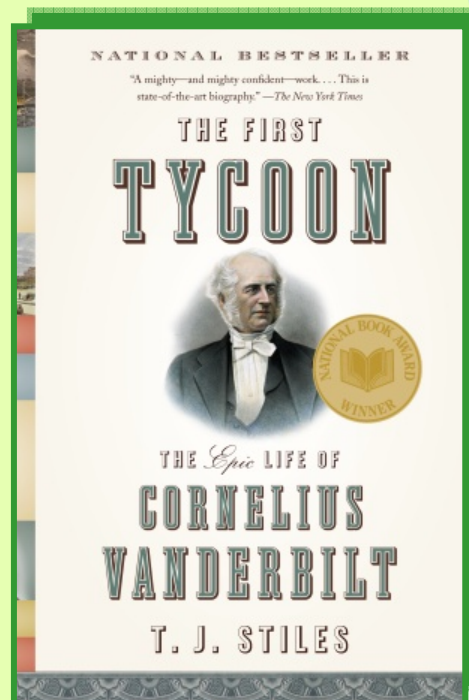

The Epic Life of Cornelius Vanderbilt

The First Tycoon is the exhilarating story of a man and a nation maturing together: the powerful account of a man whose life was as epic and complex as American history itself.

A gripping, groundbreaking biography of the combative man whose genius and force of will created modern capitalism.

Winner of the National Book Award

PULITZER PRIZE FOR GENERAL NON-FICTION

The Dead Hand by David E. Hoffman

This riveting narrative history of the end of the arms race sheds new light on the frightening last chapters of the Cold War and the legacy of the nuclear, chemical, and biological weapons that remain a threat today.
