Random House Finalists

Fiction

To the End of the Land

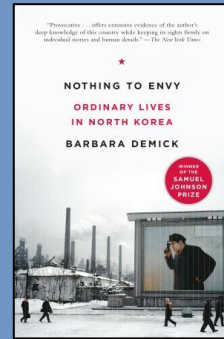

This masterpiece about an Israeli mother and son, the two men she loves, and the costs of war is a profound contribution to the literature of modern life, and is already an international best seller, poised to be the most popular book yet by one of Israel's greatest living writers.

Nonfiction

Apollo's Angels

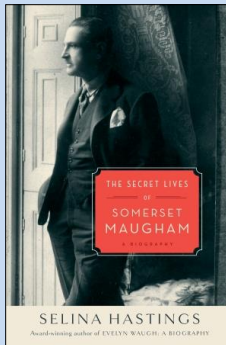

A National Book Critics Circle Finalist, and published to extraordinary acclaim, this national bestseller is the first definitive history of ballet, lavishly illustrated and beautifully packaged.

Nonfiction

Nothing to Envy

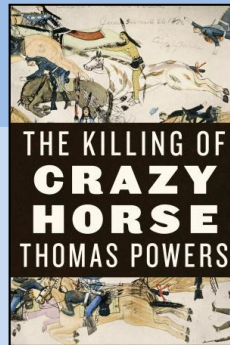

From a first-rate journalist, the first book to penetrate the mind-set of ordinary North Korean citizens and to present a never-before-seen view of daily life in the world's most repressive regime.

Biography

The Secret Lives of Somerset Maugham

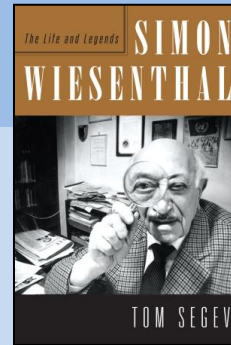

The startling biography of one of the 20th century's most popular writers—the author of The Razor's Edge and Of Human Bondage—by award-winning literary biographer Selina Hastings.

Biography

The Killing of Crazy Horse

The extraordinary story of the greatest Indian warrior of the nineteenth century.

Biography

Simon Wiesenthal

From esteemed Israeli journalist and historian Tom Segev comes the first fully documented biography of Wiesenthal, which reveals the fascinating truth behind this simultaneously admired, despised, and feared hunter of Nazi criminals.
