THE TIGER'S WIFE

NOW AVAILABLE AS AN EXPORT PAPERBACK

This astonishing novel from one of the youngest writers ever to debut in The New Yorker is a transcendent tale of love, grieving, war, and courage.

"A hugely ambitious, audaciously written work... It's not so much magical realism in the tradition of Gabriel García Márquez or Günter Grass as it is an extraordinarily limber exploration of allegory and myth...A richly textured and searing novel."

— Michiko Kakutani,
The New York Times
